Secretary of State,
Washington, D. C.

Reference is made to Embassy Report No. 334, dated May 24, 1949, and other correspondence dealing with the operating by Mexican Radio Station XEHP of broadcasts emanating from Station KNCB, Nogales, Arizona.

The most recent incident was a complaint by the Associated Press, (see American Consul's letter of Mexico, Sonora to Embassy dated May 26, 1949, copy of which was sent to the Division of Mexican Affairs) that Station XEHP was broadcasting verbatim from the Arizona Daily Star, Tucson, Arizona, items of Associated Press origin. The Embassy has been informed by Ing. Miguel Forey, Director General of Telecommunications, that in compliance with his instructions, Station XEHP discontinued, as of August 9, 1949, its news broadcast programs.

This should constitute a satisfactory reply to the Associated Press complaint presented to the Federal Communications Commission in March of this year by the A. P., 50 Rockefeller Plaza, New York City.
